

Name:	“PROJECT WATER SUPPLY AND GARANTEES CITIZENS’ RIGHTS TO HEALTHY ENVIROMENT”
Applicant:	Ministry of Construction and Urban Development, the Government of Mongolia
Type of finance:	Private and other Investment
Sector:	Water supply and sanitation
Project type:	all type of project
Target site:	Mongolian cities and suburbs of cities
Project basis:	~ Reception of qualitative water in enough one of fundamental rights of the human given to him both a nature and the state. Water has been identified as the divisive factor for urban and rural disparity in the 2003 National human development Report. The government of Mongolia stresses the importance of issues on water and sanitation, and human settlement by demonstrating its efforts to mainstream the global targets into national development policies and strategies Economic Growth Support and Poverty Reduction Strategy, and Action Plans.
Project goals:	~ The project aims is adopting the MDG targets as the Government’s mid-term strategic goal of increasing the coverage of improved water sources to 80%, and improved sanitation services to 62% of the population by 2015 against the 1990 baseline average. The purpose can be achieved in 3 basic directions <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Expansion of area of water supply system and sanitation 2. Improving sustainability and affordability of water management systems 3. Involving both private and other investments, establishing community-based service and increasing of workplaces
Requested amount:	874.038.956 USD